QUINQUENNIAL TRAINING COURSE 2-4 March 2012 Aylesford Priory, Kent

The Association will be running its residential Quinquennial training weekend on 2-4 March 2012 at Aylesford Priory, Kent.

Delegates meet on the Friday night for dinner and an introduction to the Quinquennial inspection system and on Saturday 3 March there will be a further detailed briefing on how to undertake a Quinquennial, followed by the opportunity to undertake an inspection of a local church with the course tutors on hand to assist. On Sunday morning, delegates undertake a written exercise to produce part of the inspection for discussion.

The cost of the course, including all accommodation and meals, is £175 per person. It is hoped however that this will be significantly reduced through the generous support of English Heritage and a revised figure will be confirmed as soon as possible.

To reserve a place, please complete the attached booking form and return it to the Association's Secretary, John Bailey, c/o Thomas Ford & Partners, 177 Kirkdale, Sydenham, London SE26 4QH with your cheque made payable to EASA. You will receive acknowledgement immediately and the course details will be sent out by week ending Friday, 3 February 2012.
